PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Shanghai Hongzuo New Energy Technology Co., Ltd., Shanghai

Jun 2026 - Aug 2026

Power Market Research Intern

- Collected and standardized day-ahead and real-time spot electricity prices from 10+ provincial markets, reconciling inconsistent file formats, interval granularity and missing-value conventions; supported development of a Python analysis and visualization tool (pandas, DuckDB, Plotly, Streamlit) charting day-ahead versus real-time spreads by node
- Researched pricing mechanisms, mapping spot price pass-through and settlement flows and comparing transmission and distribution tariffs across the third and fourth regulatory cycles
- Built a solar resource database from 26 years of NASA POWER irradiance data for renewable asset acquisition screening, computing inter-annual generation variability for 77 sites; audited 91 project coordinates and flagged 42 as incorrect or unverifiable, one recorded 1,585 km from its actual location
- Contributed to Vietnam power market investment research and to the Chinese translation and data summary of the Global Electricity Review 2026

CITIC, Shanghai

Jul 2024 - Aug 2024

Operations Intern

- Dissected daily operational tasks by organizing financial data, updating internal tracking sheets, and preparing materials for routine reporting. Managed assigned workflow items independently and ensured completion within established deadlines, particularly during high-volume reporting periods
- Reviewed and cross-checked data entries to maintain accuracy across internal documents. Consolidated information from multiple sources into standardized formats to support team reporting needs. Maintained clear and organized records to reduce confusion and improve task visibility
- Communicated directly with team members to clarify requirements and resolve discrepancies when needed, helping keep processes moving without delay. Operated in a structured environment required attention to detail, speed, and accountability in every task

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- Education-focused Nonprofit ---China: Delivered educational support in underdeveloped regions with limited infrastructure. Coordinated lesson schedules, managed teaching materials, and ensured daily program execution. Adapted quickly to changing conditions while maintaining accountability and teamwork in resource-constrained environments

PROJECT EXPERIENCE:

Research on the future development of research-oriented tech

Feb 2024 - Jun 2024

- Collaborated in a team to analyze the integration of artificial intelligence and environmental protection across industry applications
- Wrote to research synthesis, report development, and presentation delivery
- Presented findings through a structured PowerPoint presentation

SKILLS:

- Python (pandas, DuckDB, Plotly, Streamlit), SQL, Microsoft Excel (Pivot Tables, VLOOKUP), data cleaning and reconciliation, REST/JSON API data collection, data visualization and reporting, process execution, workflow coordination, cross-functional communication
